

Dr. Dolores Sicheri

Medical Oncologist/Hematologist, Regional Cancer Care

Dr. Dolores Sicheri completed her undergraduate education in Biology-Biochemistry at Columbia University and attended the New York University Medical School where she received her MD. She then went on to complete her fellowship in Internal Medicine at Downstate Medical Centre, and her subspecialty training in Hematology and Oncology at Albany Medical Hospital in New York.

Dr. Sicheri began her career in 1982 as an Assistant Professor of Medicine at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Centre. Since 1987, she practiced as a staff Medical Oncologist at the Windsor Regional Cancer Centre until joining the Regional Cancer Care team in October, 2008.

Dr. Oleg Rubel, PhD

Scientist, Thunder Bay Regional Research Institute

Originally from Ukraine, Dr. Oleg Rubel completed his Masters in Mechanical Engineering and PhD in Material Science at Zaporozhye State Technical University, Ukraine. He spent three years with the Department of Aircraft and Manufacturing Engineering at Zaporozhye before transferring to the Philipps-University Marburg in Germany.

From 2003-2008, Dr. Rubel worked in the Material Science Centre and Department of Physics at Philipps-University Marburg before joining the Thunder Bay Regional Research Institute in October, 2008. Here he will specialize in examining the physics behind x-ray and gamma-ray detectors that are used in advanced detection/early diagnostics imaging research.

Dr. Kevin Ramchandrar

Radiation Oncologist, Regional Cancer Care

Born in Kenora, Ontario, Dr. Kevin Ramchandrar received his undergraduate degree in Computer Engineering at the University of Waterloo. He went on to complete his MD at the University of Toronto, and sat as President of the Professional Association of Interns and Residents of Ontario during his residency in 2008.

Dr. Ramchandrar is currently completing his post-graduate medical training in Hamilton at the Juravinski Cancer Centre. He is excited to return to Northwestern Ontario to join the Regional Cancer Care team as a Radiation Oncologist.